

Figure 1. Easylift tape being removed from its paper backing.

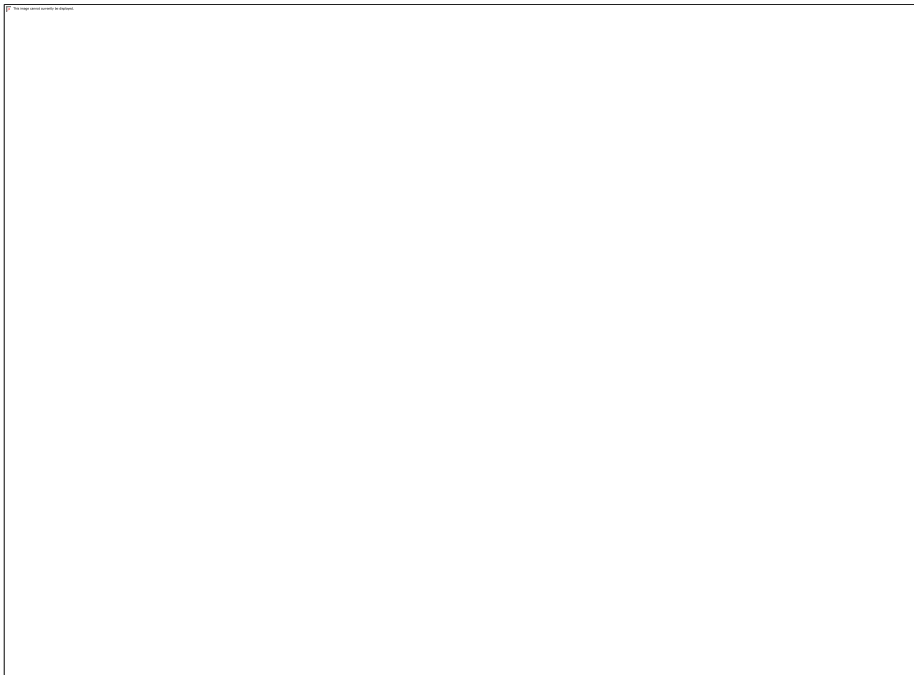

Figure 2. The application of Easylift tape to a surface to be sampled.

Figure 3. The Easylift coated slide. This image shows the slide viewed from the uncoated side, with the protective paper backing film on the underside of the transparent coating material.

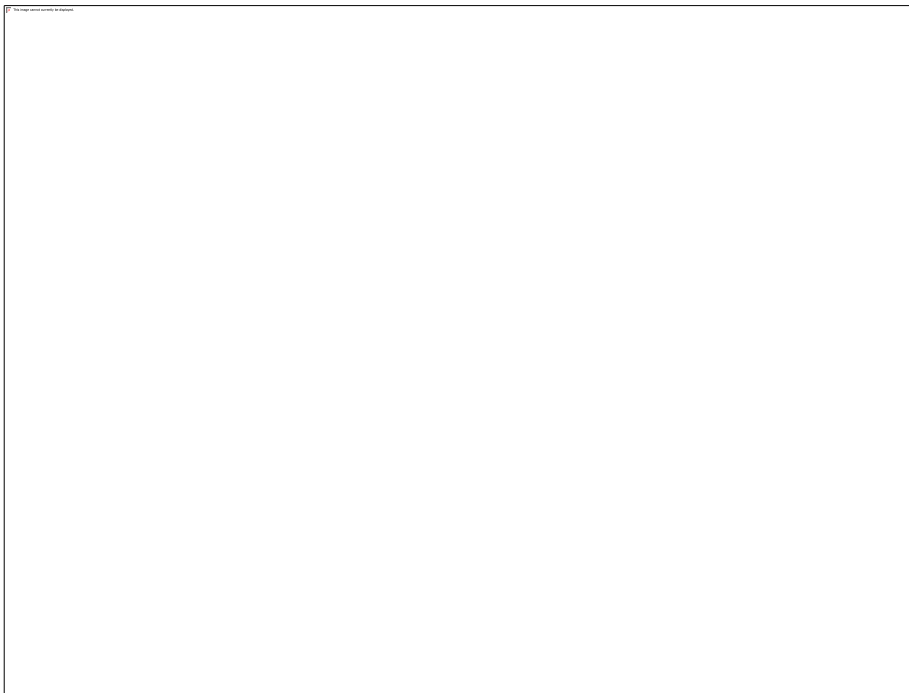

Figure 4. The complete, sealed, Easylift system, with trace evidence trapped within.

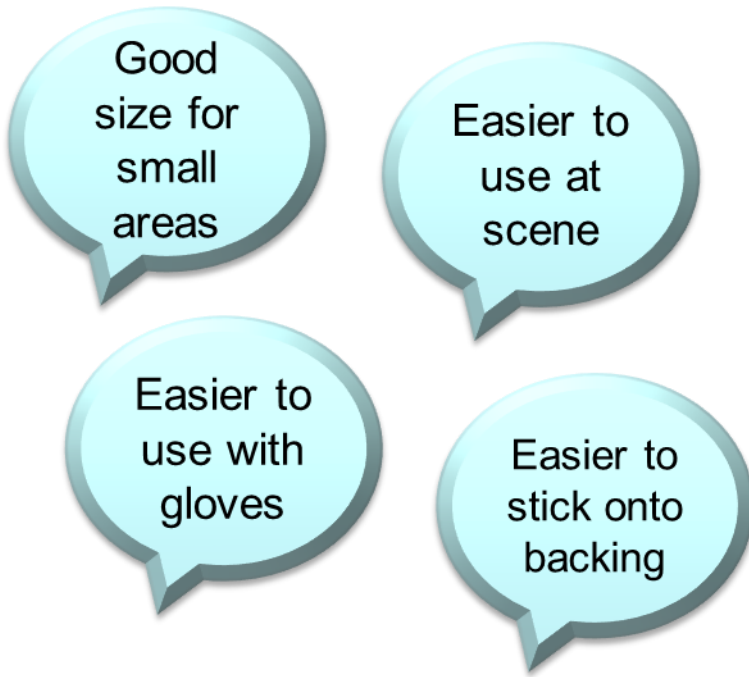

Figure 5. Comments on Easylift from Scenes of Crime Officers

Figure 6. Comments on Easylift from forensic practitioners who analyse fibres and other particulates in casework (MSP stands for microspectrophotometric).