
Anna Francis was commissioned to create a self-guided interactive art work for the British Ceramics Biennial, 2015. The wheel used local Ceramics related vocabulary to engage the viewer of the Biennial exhibition in the language of ceramics.